

INTEGRATED POLICY

Published Date:15/ 07 2003
Revision No:8
Revision Date:16/03/2020

Our main goal is to follow the technological developments, to keep up with the dynamic structure of the era, to be open to changes and innovations, to be applicable within the scope of Integrated Management Systems and Nuclear Security Culture that we have created with our principles and values, to comply with the legal and other conditions, to continuously improve our quality, without sacrificing quality. to reduce costs, ensure absolute customer satisfaction by meeting customer needs and expectations, protect employees from potential hazards on behalf of the organization, control negative environmental impacts, use energy resources efficiently and contribute to sustainable development.

In accordance with this purpose;

- Quality - Environment - Occupational Health and Safety standards, Energy efficiency, Sustainability and Nuclear Safety Culture requirements implementing with the participation of our stakeholders,
- By setting goals and targets for our processes and periodically reviewing the effectiveness, performance and performance of the Integrated Management System.Improving energy efficiency performance, using raw materials effectively and efficiently with our continuous improvement efforts, losses reducing and minimizing the use of natural resources,
- To identify potential risks related to our activities in advance, prevent possible damages to the environment and not to cause environmental pollution, primarily reducing waste at its source and recovering it as much as possible, reducing energy consumption,
- Continuously improving our environmental performance by reducing CO2 emissions from transportation, transportation, products and services, occupational health and to choose suppliers that are sensitive to the safety and environment,
- Providing the necessary information and resources to realize the activities and targets aimed at increasing energy efficiency,
- Effective for our employees and other stakeholders to realize their responsibilities for Quality - Environment - Occupational Health and Safety, Energy efficiency to ensure communication order and participation,
- By giving importance to Occupational Health and Safety; Our policy is to take all necessary measures to prevent occupational diseases and work accidents. in line with our investments, sustainable production, taking into account the needs and expectations of our stakeholders; economic,To fulfill our social and environmental responsibilities and add value to them, to contribute to the local economy,
- Adopting ethical supply business practices and ethical supply chain principles, protecting the natural environment, being respectful to human and environment, our activities by conducting multi-dimensional communication and execution with an ethical, transparent and accountable management approach and sustainable growth vision. Increasing the trust and satisfaction of our employees, customers and suppliers, effective leadership and management for nuclear security providing, maintaining operational preparedness for emergencies, improving and maintaining awareness of potential risks, workers, public and to ensure the protection of people, with a systematic approach by constantly communicating and interacting with company employees and stakeholders; nuclear security improve its performance, standard, nuclear safety culture,

We are committed,

General Manager
Çetin LİVAOĞLU